Do that by creating a sales page for the new ebook, but do not embrace a price on that page. As a substitute, add quite a few links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to aid you in assigning a price to your ebook.

Another strategy is to test out costs by making a number of duplicate sales pages with totally different costs on each page. Make certain your sales copy is strictly the similar on every page, and contains your promoting-handle sentence. Then work out for every web page the conversion ratio between visitors to your site and gross sales of your book. This can let you know what your optimum price is.

In the end, should you've written a guide that solves a drawback or presents a new approach, your guide will bring in both traffic and profits.
